The characters who appear in the Tu mundo program are all members of a student club called Amigos sin Fronteras (Friends without Borders). As the name suggests, our characters are from all over the Hispanic world. The members of Amigos sin Fronteras (AsF) meet to socialize, share food, go dancing, listen to music, and help each other out. Some of these characters are U.S.-born, some are immigrants, some are foreign students, and a couple of them live and go to school in their native countries.
