That line, on the cover flap of Lang Leav's debut novel Sad Girls, is a quote from the book, but also a prose poem (from Leav's collection Lullabies). Can't you just picture it as a meme, complete with a beautiful, tear-stained teenager staring out of a window?

Review: Sad Girls by Lang Leav - head shoulders knees & toes

- Lang Leav, Sad Girls. Overall, this book is 2 stars purely because of the story line. If it wasn't for that, I think I would have DNF'd it. But I really do recommend that you read this. If you try and look past the handful of awful characters, this book is just pure entertainment that will have you glued to your seat.
