Rosebush Michele Jaffe

The author Michelle Jaffe tried to throw me off but in the end I was right. Rosebush was kind of predictable but th Imagine waking up in a rosebush, pierced by hundreds of thorns, paralyzed and unable to remember the last 5 hours.

Rosebush by Michele Jaffe - Goodreads

ROSEBUSH has no shortage of suspects. Michele Jaffe held my interest and had me flipping pages eager to figure out who what when where why and how. The ending was the weakest part of the story, too convoluted to be logical. Still, I enjoyed the reading experience of ROSEBUSH and recommend.

Rosebush by Michele Jaffe Firstly, I've got to say this book was incredibly hard to put down. The plot is so absorbing I found myself trying to read a page at every opportunity I got. I was late for work on a few occasions because I couldn't pull myself away.

Rosebush by Michele Jaffe - TheBookbag.co.uk book review

REVIEW: Rosebush by Michelle Jaffe. John D Reviews abuse / Michele-Jaffe / mystery / Young-Adult 11 Comments. Dear Ms. Jaffe, It has been a while since the young-adult world has seen some high profile novels in the vein of mystery/suspense. The 90's was an epic burnout of the genre, and the book world hasn't gotten over it entirely.
